

Parayhouse Weekly Newsletter (1/3/19)

- ❖ THANKYOU to everyone who attended our first celebration assembly before half term. A full report will follow in Parayhouse News at the end of this module.
- ❖ MAKATON We have a few spaces left on the Makaton workshops for families which start on Friday 8th March (and two subsequent Fridays). If you are interested please contact Miss Geraghy on c.geraghty@parayhouse.com.
- ❖ WORLD BOOK DAY is on Thursday 7th March. The school will be celebrating by visiting a bookshop to spend our tokens and through storytelling sessions with Ms Walker. Students are welcome to dress up for the day as their favourite book or comic character for a donation of £2. This money will be used towards resources for Ms Routley's new mobile library. There will be a prize for the most creative outfit at the end of the day.
- ❖ Ms Wolday would like to bring to everyone's attention a play that her friend is performing in:

DANGEROUS GIANT ANIMALS is a funny and daring one woman play that explores how surreal, challenging, and remarkable disability in a family can be. It is suitable for 12+ and is on from 6-10 March at work The Vaults, Leake Street, SE17NN.
